

It's Time To Celebrate!

October 13 - November 19

Join New Bedford Whaling National Historical Park and Park Partners as we come together with a month long anniversary celebration.

Schedule of Events:

- Oct. 20 Frozen in Time: An Early New Bedford Carte de Visite Album 6:00 PM
Stop by New Bedford Whaling Museum to explore Susan Lukesh a mid-nineteenth century New Bedford photo album.
- Oct. 21 Famine, Friends & Fenians 6:00 PM
New Bedford Whaling Museum's exhibit Famine, Friends & Fenians explores New Bedford's curious role in Irish history from the 18th century through the famous "Easter Rising" in 1916.
- Dock-U-Mentaries 7:00 PM
The Last Bay Scallop?, a film by Nantucket film maker John Stanton will be shown at New Bedford Fishing Heritage Center located at 38 Bethel St., New Bedford.
- Oct. 22 Park Unveils New Junior Ranger Program 9:00 AM
Park Rangers will offer a new Junior Ranger program at the National Park Visitor Center. Follow the lives of two young people as they make their way through New Bedford in the 1800s.
- African American Historical & Genealogical Society Celebration
New Bedford Historical Society and the New England Chapter of the African American Historical & Genealogical society host a celebration at the New Bedford Art Museum.
- Oct. 29 The Slave's Cause: A History of Abolition
Manisha Sinha will speak about her recently published book The Slave's Cause: A History of Abolition. The talk, sponsored by the New Bedford Historical Society, will be at the New Bedford Free Public Library, 3rd floor.
- Nov. 02 A Day in the Life Series 7:00 PM
Join the New Bedford Fishing Heritage Center as they kick-off a new series, A Day in the Life. Learn first-hand about the fishing industry through these one-hour presentations by fishermen and others in the industry at 38 Bethel St. New Bedford.
- Nov. 10 New Bedford AHA! Night 5:00 - 9:00 PM
New Bedford Whaling National Historical Park unveils the 20th Anniversary collaborative Art Project, 20 Years of Community at the National Park Visitor Center. The reception to follow will include a preview of the 2nd floor MakerSpace exhibits to be installed in the spring of 2017.
- Nov. 12 20th Anniversary of the National Park 2:00 PM
New Bedford Whaling National Historical Park hosts a day of tours, events, programs, music, dancing, and cake.
- Nov. 19 Centennial of the Lagoda 9:00 AM
Join the New Bedford Whaling Museum for the Bourne Building Centennial Dedication, marking the official unveiling that took place during that week 100 years ago.